

Clark County Rodeo Bible Camp Frequently Asked Questions

CAMP QUESTIONS

Can I participate in more than one event –

No, can only do one event.

Is there a camp lost and found –

Yes. Anything turned in during camp will be at the reception/sign in table. Check with your counselor if no one is at the table to look for it. After camp, contact us at clarkcountyrodeobiblecamp@gmail.com.

Can I bring my dog to camp –

No. Dogs are not allowed for campers.

Can I leave to get food or beverages –

No. Campers are not allowed to leave camp.

Can I have outside food and beverages brought to me at camp – No

Is there a dress code for the Rodeo performance –

Yes. Long sleeved shirts, boots, cowboy hat and jeans.

Can I have my friends stop by and visit me at camp – No

Should I bring my own sunscreen to camp – Yes

Can I go home to shower during camp – No. Showers are provided at camp.

Can I go home at night to sleep during camp – No.

Can I bring a camper/motorhome or horse trailer to sleep in at night – No. All campers are required to sleep in designated area/tent.

Can my Parents stop by camp –

Yes, but they must check in with Camp Staff and get a wrist band so others know they are allowed to be there.

If I have a Doctor's appointment will I be allowed to leave camp –

Yes. But it must be pre-arranged and a parent has checked you out for that time period.

Do I have to go to Chapel – Yes

Do I have to participate in the team building games – Yes

Is the camp staff background checked – Yes, background checks are done on all camp staff/volunteers.

If I drive myself to camp is it ok if I leave when I want to – No. Campers are not allowed to leave camp at any time unless for emergency or medical reasons and arranged by their parent/guardian. Camper must be picked up by parent/guardian and checked out with camp staff.

Can I come to camp if I don't want to be in an event – No. Due to the limited space and the number of campers who want to participate, campers have to be in an event.

Can I still come to camp if not there on the first day – No, campers must check in on the first day of camp.

Can I leave the sleeping area after lights out – No

Do the girls and boys sleep in the same area – No. There are separate tents for boys and girls.

HORSE QUESTIONS

Are horses provided for me at camp –

No, you are required to bring your own horse unless you are in these events:
Chute dogging – Saddle Bronc – Bareback or Bull Riding

Can I bring more than one horse to camp –

No. Campers can only bring one horse per person. Stalls for horses are limited.

Can my parents drop by to take care of my horse –

No – Campers must take care of their own horse. Exception is in the case of a medical situation with the horse and the parent has checked in with the camp staff.

Am I required to bring my own horse feed –

Yes. Bring enough hay and grain for 5 days, a feed dish and a large water bucket

Am I required to bring my own brushes (grooming gear) and fly spray – Yes. Sunscreen is also recommended for horses that burn. While in their stalls, may also want to bring a fly mask.

Am I required to bring my own tack – Yes. Campers provide all their own tack.

Do I have to clean my own horses stall – Yes. Stalls are required to be kept clean, at least twice a day. Also, waters need to be checked throughout the day and refilled as needed. Stalls will be checked by camp staff.

Do I feed and water my horse – Yes. Campers are required to take care of their own horses, feeding and watering them. Because it can be hot during the camp, campers should check the horses water throughout the day and refill as needed. Horse need to be kept hydrated. Horse may also knock their water buckets over.

If my horse gets hurt during camp will I be allowed to bring in another horse – Yes